To Whom It May Concern:

Capital Style Magazine is one of Canada's leading periodicals published about the nation's capital. Capital Style Magazine is distributed as a value added insert to subscribers of The Globe and Mail newspaper in the greater Ottawa area. Throughout Canada Capital Style is sold on select newsstands.

This letter is to advise that Capital Style Magazine has secured the photographic services of Mr. Paul Couvrette and his studio since 1997.

I have personally commissioned Mr. Couvrette to photograph an array of influential personalities and a variety of significant major events. His photographs have appeared on the magazine's cover and throughout the glossy periodical.

Mr. Couvrette's ability to capture the personality of his subjects and then render their image in a timely, professional and technically-precise manner is part of what makes him a preferred choice for magazine publishers.

I would not hesitate to recommend his photographic services.

Yours truly,

Diana Rose
